ADHIR RANJAN CHOWDHURY;SHYAMA SINGH

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government are aware that the views of the various security agencies in Kashmir differ on infiltration of terrorists;

(b) if so, the facts and details in this regard;

(c) whether lack of proper coordination between various security agencies has resulted in the rise of incidents of infiltration of militants into the valley;

(d) if so, the further reaction of the Government in this regard; and

(e) the steps taken by the Union Government to maintain coordination between security agencies?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CH.VIDYASAGAR RAO)

(a) to (e): No, Sir, there is no difference of views or lack of coordination amongst various security agencies as regards infiltration of terrorists into J&K. The incidents of infiltration of terrorists into the State fluctuates depending on various factors. Necessary mechanism already exists at State and Central levels for coordination amongst security agencies deployed in J&K.
